

able Louisa Augusta, Viscountess Maidstone, at her decease, may be allowed subject to the conditions—

(a) That the said tomb should be built against the outer wall of the said Chapel;

(b) That the interior of the said tomb shall be thoroughly and effectually ventilated by suitable and sufficient means in direct communication with the external air beyond the walls of the said Cathedral Church; and

(c) That as soon as conveniently may be after the deposit of the coffin in the said tomb, the coffin shall be wholly and permanently enclosed by means of stone-flagging properly jointed in cement, or brickwork in cement, and otherwise in such manner as to prevent the escape of any noxious gas from the interior of the enclosure so formed.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Her Majesty Queen Victoria was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the 30th day of April, 1894, to direct (amongst other things) the discontinuance of burials, in the Parish Church of Fen Ditton in the County of Cambridge, and also, with certain exceptions, in the Churchyard:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council, so far as it relates to burials in the said Parish Church of Fen Ditton, and in the Churchyard, should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the 30th day of April, 1894, so far as it relates to burials in the Parish Church of Fen Ditton, in the County of Cambridge, and in the Churchyard, be and the same is hereby varied by the addition thereto of the following further excepting clause:

(d) In an earthen grave space in the Churchyard, in which no interment has heretofore taken place the burial may be allowed of the body of the late Reverend Henry Arthur Morgan, D.D., subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of October, 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Babington, in the County of Somerset; the Parish of Chevington, in the County of Northumberland; the Parish of Lanlivery, in the County of Cornwall; and the Parish of Ousden, in the Administrative County of West Suffolk; ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made Representations to His Majesty in Council, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial grounds in the Civil Parishes of Babington, in the County of Somerset; Chevington, in the County of Northumberland; Lanlivery Rural, in the County of Cornwall; and Ousden, in the Administrative County of West Suffolk; save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

BABINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Margaret, Babington, in the County of Somerset; and after the 31st day of December, 1912, in the Churchyard, except as follows:—

In the vault or walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard and belonging to the Knatchbull family, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

CHEVINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Saint John, Chevington, in the County of Northumberland; and, after the 30th of June, 1913, in the Churchyard, except as follows:—

(a) In any earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave;

(b) In the said Churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

LANLIVERY RURAL.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Lanlivery, in the County of Cornwall, and in that portion of the Churchyard which was in existence prior to the year 1909.

OUSDEN.—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of Saint Peter, in the Parish of Ousden, in the Administrative County of
